

Curtis Harris Bio

Curtis Harris is a Managing Director in Public Finance at Academy Securities. His primary responsibilities include coverage of clients in the Southwest region of the country. He has served as a senior banker for Texas clients including Dallas Independent School District, the City of Houston, the North Texas Tollway Authority and the City of Tyler among others. Throughout his career he has participated in numerous venues sharing his infrastructure expertise at industry conferences and client presentation though out the country.

He is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point where he earned a BS in Mechanical Engineering and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the U.S. Army Ordnance Corp. Upon completion of his military commitment Mr. Harris resigned as a Captain and matriculated into the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School where he earned an MBA in Finance and Marketing.

Mr. Harris is a Municipal Principal holding FINRA Series 7, 63 & 53. He resides in New York City and serves on a variety of local public boards.