

Danielle Beyer Bio

Ms. Beyer is Chief Executive Officer of the New America Alliance. Prior to joining the organization, Ms. Beyer was Director of Business Development at 55 Capital Partners, a startup fintech firm. Previously, Ms. Beyer was with Mariner Investment Group, LLC, most recently as Managing Director and Head of Investor Relations, where she focused on managing the firm's institutional investor relationships. Prior to joining Mariner, Ms. Beyer was with NatCity Investments (now PNC) where she worked on Special Situations, Industrials M&A engagements and Structured Products. Ms. Beyer earned a M.B.A. from the Simon School of Business and is a cum laude graduate of the University of Rochester. She is an active member of the University of Rochester and Simon School of Business alumni communities, and serves as a mentor for recent graduates. She advises entrepreneurs in the Technology, Media, and Financial Services sectors, and serves on the CFP Board Diversity Advisory Group. She has been a member of the NAA since 2012.