

Jonathan Berger Bio

Jonathan Berger is an attorney at Levisohn Berger LLP, where his practice focuses primarily on intellectual property and business matters but also includes Criminal and Education Law. Jonathan also advises companies and startups on intellectual property and business issues. He is an experienced trial lawyer and problem solver. Prior to joining the firm, Jonathan served as a trial lawyer for the Manhattan District Attorney's Office. In his capacity as a prosecutor, Jonathan tried numerous cases and managed the investigations and prosecutions of a wide variety of white-collar criminal, cybercrime, and counterfeiting matters.

In addition, Jonathan consults with a software development company and a media company.