

JHETT D. TOLENTINO

A 3-time Tony Award® and Grammy Award® winning theater producer. He is the first and only Filipino Tony voter among 13 million theater-goers on Broadway. He is also a Grammy voter.

He was recognized by the Philippine National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) in February 2016 with “Ani Ng Dangal” Award in Manila for bringing international honor to the Philippines. He was also awarded The Outstanding Filipino American - New York (TOFA-NY) for Entertainment in 2014 at the Carnegie Hall, New York City.

He was a delegate to the 5th Filipino-American Youth Leadership Program (FYLPRO), representing the United States to an immersion program in the Philippines; and awarded by President Rodrigo R. Duterte the The Outstanding Young Men (TOYM) at Malacanan Palace last December 2016.

His next project is a short documentary about his life from the slums in Iloilo City to Broadway: “Life is What You Make It”.
